WEDNESDAY:....NOVEMBER 19, 1850 COL. BENTON ON FREMOMT. Everything that Col. Benton says or does is an object of interest to the people of the United States On the evening of the 3d inst., at St. Louis, he made a closing speech for the campaign, at the hall of the Mercantile Library of that city. John Brady Smith presided, and the Col. was is chiefly interesting from its account of the labor received with overwhelming cheers. This speech he bestowed upon Col. Fremont, to dissuade him from standing as a candidate for the Psesidency. Ool. Benton's former speeches have not told the story so fully as this.

On this subject, Col. Benton said, while speaking of the candidates in turn:

Next is Mr. Fremont, standing near to me, in a relationship dear as it could be to me not to be my own child. He has had an eventful life great difficulties, great dangers, great trials to undergo. I stood by him in every one of them as a father would stand by a child. [Long con-

Nor, gentlemen, did he ever have need that l did not administer to him to the extent of my means. There are persons now on this platform that know that I spared nothing which I could raise and deliver him, in order to carry him through the eventful life in which he was engag-[Warm applause.] All that was paternal all that was nature—nature acting, nature speak-ing, nature at liberty to obey its most cherished feelings. [Cheers.] At last he has permitted himself to be put up as a candidate for the Presidency of the United States. I knew it long be-fore you did, long before anybody did, and there are persons on this platform that knew what was my conduct—that as a father speaks to a child, in a room by himself, at the hearth, there my warning voice was against it. [Loud applace.] All advice, all my remonstrances, were uscless, for in the first place I, who had a near wnd close view of the American Presidents; , who have seen all the Presidents in the chair from Madison to the present day—I, who have seen them all in the chair, and been intimate with many of them—I, who have received from the lip of many of them, while they were sitting there, the overflowing expressions of their own hearts-I, who have seen all this, who have been near enough to see the inside view of them, did not happen to have that high place which a great many people have. It never appeared to me to be a place that I would not wish to see any good man in, in preference to myself or any of my I never saw the day in which I did not prefer to see any good man there than any of my connexion, and far more than be seen there myself. I could at least have been tried for this place. I could have been nominated for the place on some occasions. I put it down as soou as it was mentioned to me, because I had no inclination for the thing itself. I knew good men whom l preferred to myself, and therefore made way for these good men. I have never seen the time from Madison's Administration to the present one; in which these were not my views; it was, therefore repugnant to my feelings to see him become a candidate.'

We quote from another part of the speech: "Do justice to all, administer the Constitution in its proper spirit give to all its compromises full and free away, and upon that I rely that the people will cling together, the small party will be unable to make themselves felt. (Loud applause.) Nullification and secession in the South, Abolitionism in the North—and by Abolitionists I enclude no man that is against the extension of slavery where it does not now exist .-Cheers.) I am one of that class myself. (Cheers have avowed that on every occasion, and I say o you fellow citizens, that one of the occasions saw Henry Clay rise higher than I ever thought l saw him before, was when in the debate on the admission of California, a dissolution was apprehended, if slavery was not carried into this Territory, where it never was. Then Mr. Clay, rising, loomed colossally in the Senate of the United States, as he rose declaring that for no earthly purpose, no earthly object, could be carry slavery where it did not exist before. (Cheers. At the same time he would bear his against any infraction against the right of the therever it existed. (Long contin ued applause.) It was a great and proud day for Mr. Clay, towards the latter days of his life, and if an artist could have been there to catch his expression as he uttered that sentiment, with its reflex on his tace, and his countenance beaming with firmness of purpose, it would have been a glorious moment to transmit him to posterity-his countenance all alive with the ideas that best within his bosom. (Loud applause which interrupted the speaker.) That was a proud day. I could have wished that I had spoken the same words. I speak them now, telling you they were his, and adopting them as

THE TOBACCO CROP.

We are enabled, says the New Orleans Picayune, through the kindness of a friend, to give the following extracts from letters received from Missouri, various parts of Kentucky, showing the extent of the damage by the frosts to the tobacco crop in that State. That given first in order is from Texas, Hon. Geo. Wright, of Kentucky, and we are assured that all the others are from reliable persons, These letters were sent to one of the most respectable commission houses in our city:

SMITH GROVE, Ky. Oct. 8, 1856. I have traversed the counties of Warren Allen, Barren, Cumberland, Clinton and Edmonson since the frost of the 22d ult. My opinion with regard to the tobacco crop in those counties is that about one-half of the planting is saved, (or rather cut,) and half of what is cut is seriously damaged by the frost. I do not think more llan one-fourth of the crop is saved in good condition. The crop was very short if all had been CLARKSVILLE, Oct 8, 1856. The intelligence received from all sections of the tobacco growing country of the West confirm the reports of serious damage to the crop by frost. It is thought at the very least one-half of the crop was standing when visited by frost, and we feel satisfied that two-thirds of all the crop that was housed and not frostbitten was cut green We presume that about one-third of the frosted portion of the crop will be prepared and find its way to market.

BOWLING GARRE, Kr., Sept. 26, 1856. I now wish to inform you that at least half of the entire crop in the county, and counties east and north of us have been entirely destroyed or greatly injured by the frost, or cut into very unripe state. The crop will be very small, not more than one-third of last year's crop.

Handbrson, KY., Sept. 25, 1856. Fully three-fourths of the crop was standing in the field when the frost came, nearly all of which is ruined or badly damaged. Some of our largest planters reported to me yesterday that they had lost nearly all, and one large planter who sells to me every year, told me had only saved 8 per cent.; all the rest was entirely ruined.

EDDYVILLE, KY., Sept. 26, 1856. The frost on Monday night was the most de-structive ever known in this country. At least two-thirds of the entire crop of the year was destroyed. It is not only nipped but killed. I have seen many fine large crops of tobacco that were completely killed, and but one that was slightly damaged, and that was on a location protected by a small mountain. You may rely upon this as it is given under my own observa-tion. I have neard of two planters who grew the weed extensively, that had housed before the frost, but in nine cases out of ten more than one-third was housed. I attended a political meet-ing in Caldwell county, and met there citizens rom nearly every part of that and Lyon counties, and have since heard from the southern part of Crittenden and they all corroborated the CADIE, Ky., Sept. 24, 1856. The tobacco crop was severely injured on Sunday night, and on Monday night the damage was very great. Nearly all the tobacco in the Barrens rained, and upon Little River and the Cumberland it is very seriously injured; all the tobac-co in the lower lands entirely ruined. I was down Little River yesterday to the Unmberland, and speak from my own knowledge as regards and speak from my own knowledge as regards are Scott, Weakly and Haywood. They gave, that portion of our country; and on last night we as stated above, a democratic majority of 623 in had a very heavy frost, much more so than on the last election. Haywood is reported to have had a very beavy frost, much more so than on preceding nights, and all tobacco not cut must be black—rulned. Up to the time of the first frost, there had been but little cut, I would say not over one-fourth; as to quality in the field uneut I would say fully one-half. In fact I doubt very much whether there is half the crop saved.

The save of the last election. Haywood is reported to have given a Democratic gain of 130, and Weakly a Democratic gain of 239. Scott is reported to have given a gain of 239. Scott is reported to have given a Democratic gain of 230, and Weakly a Democratic gain of 230. Scott is reported to have given a gain of 230. Scott is reported to have given a Democratic gain of 230. -LAPATETTE, KY., Sept. 26. The frost on Sunday night did considerable damage in flat and low lands, and on Tuesday night killed, or nearly, every plant; and on Wednesday it finished the work; my opinion is must now be a very small one in our county. I land in February.

From all the information I can get, as well as my own observation, there is at least one-half of the crop destroyed by frost, and one-half of that which was cut green. I have seen planters from all parts of the country, and they all agree with the country are considered to the country and they all agree with the country are considered to the country and they all agree with the country are considered to the country are considered to the country and they all agree with the country are considered to the country and they all agree with the country are considered to the country and they are considered to the country are con

VOLNEY, KY., Sept. 25, 1856. There was more than half of the crop caught in the frost, and more or less damaged, and much was cut in an unripe state. I am clearly of the opiniou not more than one-third of the entire crop can be good and fine tobacco, and from all the information I can collect, and my own personal information, I am fully persualed the crop will be lessened one-half from frost, and the green state in which a large portion of it was cut. The crop in this county, under the most favorable circumstances, could not have exceeded two-thirds of last year crop.

More than one third of the entire crop is now out, and in some localities, well protected by timber; a small portion will doubtless be cut. The balance is entirely worthless. I do not suppose more than one half of the entire crop can be made available; and the larger portion will be green and frosted. I have lost half of my crop, and shall not cut another plant.

By the above table it will be seen that Mr. Bnchanan's majority over Fremont and Fillmore is had when he was elected in 1836, or Mr. Polk when he was chosen in 1844, or General Taylor when he was elected in 1848. He has a larger popular majority over his principal competitor than any candidate for the Presidency ever received. It will not be less than four hundred thousand majority over Fremont in the nation at

A new edition of the People's Pamphlet, give ing the rise and progress and wonderful cures of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, from 1840 to the present time, given gratis by the agents to this valuable medicine. It is richly worth a peusal. This imparralleled preparation is received ing more testimouals of its wonderful efficacy in removing pains, than any other medicine ever offered to the public. And these testimonials onne not alone from the ignorant, but from persons of every degree of intelligence, and every rank of life. Physicians of the first respectability and perfectly conversant with the nature of discases and remedics, have recommended this as one of the most effectual in their line of prepar ations for the extinction of pain.

As an internal remedy the Pain Killer has no equal. It will cure Cholera, Cholic, Summer Complaint, Dysentery, Dyspepsia, Asthama, Rheumatism, &c., by taking it internally and bathing with it freely. It is the best luminent in America. America. Its action is like magic, when exter-nally applied to bad sores, bruises, sprains burns and scalds, either on man or beast. DR. ROBACK'S SCANDINAVIAN REMEDIES .- IN irecting the attention of our readers to Dr. Roback's advertisement, we have no hesitation in saying that all he claims for his medicines is confirmed by certificates from all parts of the west The language of these certificates is so earnest and grateful, and the cures refer to such a variety of diseases, that it would be tolly to question the restorative properties of the preparations. It appears that while botanizing among his native mountains, in Sweden, during a visit to that country some years ago, he collected a large quantity of rare medicinal herbs, unknown in this country, and by combining the liquids and solid extracts of those possessing powerful detergent properties, he succeeded in producing his celebrated Blood Purifier and Blood Pills, which are said to exercise a more beneficial effect upon the fluids of the human body than any other curatives in existence. Dr. Roback's theory is, that all diseases originate in the blood, and it would seem that the rapid recovery of his patients, under a course of these disjufectants, affords strong presumptive evidence that his pathology is correct. Certain it is that the celebrity of his medicines increases daily, and that he has authentic proofs of their success in his possessions. See Advertisement.

IT IS WONDERFUL how some gray hair i changed to its original color, and stops to fall by the use of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. And the ladies are loud in its praise as a cosmetic and cure for pimples and blotches, in short it is now a standard remedy and one in very respect desirable for the toilet.

This medicine is prepared entirely from vegetable substances; ite most delicate stomach can bear it conveniently, and it of given with perfect safety, in minute doses to the most feinder infants, its properties being of a strengthening and invigorating nature. It is nearly put up in bottles, with ample directions for use.

The tollowing testimonials from some well known and respectable citizens of Philadelphia, are fully corroborative of the tried efficacy of the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir.

Attetsation. We, having used William's Anti-Dyspectic Elixir with the most perfect satisfaction and success, take great plea sure in recommending it to all persons suffering with plys pepsia, as we are fully convinced of its most estimable qualities in restoring the digestive powers, removing all pain and uneasiness, and impatting a healthy tone to the pain and uneasiness, and impatting a reactify tone to the stomach.

Doctor Jadies Williams:—For several years past, I have been liable to attacks of Dyspepsia; but never have I been more distressingly afflicted with its symptoms, than with in the last few weeks. Indigestion, nervous uritability, despondency, a sense of weight in the stomach, and severe pains in the left side, reidering me, for the time being, truly wretched. Fortwately, I was recommended by a lineal to try your Elixir. I did so, and in less than two weeks, indigestion ceased; pain and nervous depressions left me, and appetite, with nectal and bodily health, were fully restored. To me the cure seemed almost im raculous, and my object in writing to you is—a hope that other persons suffering the maseries of Dyspepsia will avail thetaselves of your efficient romedy.

I am, dear sir, yours truly.

Louisville, Ky,

In-calling the attention of dealers in our line in this mark tet, we would state that during the last six months our attention has been directed to getting up a large number of new Stove and Grate Patterns, which, added to our already large stock, gives us one of the most extensive and diversified assortiments in the western market. Among the number, we would refer to our "Ashlaad Kentuckian" Cook Stove, three sizes out.) These Stoves have great weight to metal, highly finished and elegant in appearance. They combine all the modern inurovements that practical experience has developed.

We would invite dealers to call and examines for themselves, and we think in quality, price, &c., they can be suited. Having enlarged our manufacturing department, we can promptly incet all demands. Thankfulfor the pat ronage which has been so kinkly bestowed upon us, we cure a continuance of it. And the quality of our manufacture a continuance of it.
